
Unit 3 - Week 2

Week 2: Assignment

1) When paying attention to what you read, authorship refers to:

- The credentials of the author of the paper
- The believability of the manuscript and the author
- The lack of bias in the manuscript

Accepted Answers:

The credentials of the author of the paper

2) When paying attention to what you read, credibility refers to:

- The credentials of the author of the paper
- The believability of the manuscript and the author
- The lack of bias in the manuscript

Accepted Answers:

The believability of the manuscript and the author

3) When paying attention to what you read, objectivity refers to:

- The credentials of the author of the paper
- The believability of the manuscript and the author
- The lack of bias in the manuscript

Accepted Answers:

The lack of bias in the manuscript

4) A central idea that you use to get focused about your work is known as:

- A thesis
- A working thesis
- An argumentative thesis

Accepted Answers:

A working thesis

5) A central idea about your work is known as:

- A thesis
- A working thesis
- An argumentative thesis

Accepted Answers:

A thesis

6) A central idea about your work that implicitly deals with two opposing sides of a concept is known as:

- A thesis
- A working thesis
- An argumentative thesis

Accepted Answers:

An argumentative thesis

7) With reference to establishing your credibility, you can demonstrate knowledge by:

- Identifying the sources of your information
- Discovering and considering opinions other than your own about the topic
- Treating opposing points of view in the same manner as your own

Accepted Answers:

Identifying the sources of your information

8) With reference to establishing your credibility, you can demonstrate fairness by:

- Identifying the sources of your information
- Discovering and considering opinions other than your own about the topic
- Treating opposing points of view in the same manner as your own

Accepted Answers:

Treating opposing points of view in the same manner as your own

