

WEEK 2 ASSIGNMENT 2

(1) "Quit India" slogan was made by _____.

A. Yusuf Mehrally

B. M.K. Gandhi

C. Achyut Patwardhan

D. Ram Manohar Lohia

(2) The Great Calcutta Killings took place on _____.

A. 14 August 1947

B. 8 November 1946

C. 16 August 1946

D. 30 September 1946

(3) The final Viceroy of India was _____.

A. Cyril Radcliffe

B. Lord Louise Mountbatten

C. Clement Attlee

D. Lord Linlithgow

(4) 'Grand narratives' function towards _____.

A. promoting ideas of equality

B. capturing multifaceted realities

C. contributing to our personal accounts

D. defining our heritages and legitimizing our social groups

(5) Formal history is constituted through _____.

A. inclusive process

B. selective process

C. comparative process

D. dialogic process

(6) While psychologists are more interested in _____, sociological theorists emphasize _____.

A. individual memory, collective memory

B. collective memory, individual memory

C. local memory, global memory

D. personal memory, relative memory

(7) The subaltern understandings of Partition render voice to silent subjects, such as _____.

A. The woman

B. The Dalit

C. The freedom fighters

D. The juvenile

(8) Survivors Of trauma _____ narrate their tragedies.

A. incoherently

B. distinctly

C. comprehensively

D. logically

9. The female as a corporeal presence resists the _____ timeframe of the mainstream history.

A. concurrent and multifaceted

B. cyclic and repetitive

C. linear and teleological

D. non-linear and fragmented

10. As a methodological tool, oral history has _____ official documentary sources rather than _____ with them.

A. complemented, competed

B. completed, agreed

C. accumulated, conflicted

D. reinforced, resisted