

WEEK 7 ASSIGNMENT 7

(1) In Cracking India, Lenny's nanny Ayah is a _____ woman, from _____.

- A. Muslim, Sindh
- B. Parsee, Calcutta
- C. Sikh, Karachi

D. Hindu, Punjab*

(2) In Cracking India, Lenny is a child of the _____ household.

- A. Hindu
- B. Parsee
- C. Sikh
- D. Muslim

(3) In which year the north-western provinces taken out of the Presidency of Bengal?

- A. 1857
- B. 1845

C. 1835*

- D. 1855

(4) _____ is a narrative that erases the distinction between literary work and critical social history.

- A. dual history
- B. proto-memory
- C. counter-memory

D. counter-history*

(5). Chere Asha Gram (The Abandoned Village) is a compilation of essays written by refugees serialised in which Bengali vernacular newspaper?

- A. Dainik Sambad
- B. Jugantar
- C. Amrita Bazar Patrika
- D. Samachar Darpan

(6). Along with Rabindranath Tagore, _____ have made many colonist impressions of the rural Bengal?

- A. Sarat Chandra Chatterjee

B. Bankim Chandra Chatterjee

C. Nirad C. Chaudhuri*

D. Jibanananda Das

(7). According to Udit Sen, there are _____ distinct phases of rehabilitation?

A. Four

B. Five

C. Three*

D. Eight

(8). When was the plan to Partition of India announced on _____?

A. July 4, 1947

B. June 3, 1947*

C. June 15, 1947

D. August 4, 1947

(9). Dawn, a newspaper which was Muslim League's mouthpiece founded by _____?

A. Maulana Muhammad Ali Jauhar

B. Muhammad Ali Jinnah*

C. Syed Nabiullah

D. Zafar Ali Khan

(10). With the help of her younger brother _____, Lenny succeeds in ripping apart the legs and in splitting the doll's body?

A. Amal

B. Anil

C. Adi*

D. Sunil